

It's not often you get to be a part of history.

This Sunday November 17 is your chance to be part of something huge, something important. On Sunday we will stand together with tens of thousands of Australians across the country and demand our nation do better on climate change.

The United Firefighters Union has been invited to address the Rally in Perth and other major cities around Australia.

We will be commenting on the growing frequency and ferocity of campaign fires and the need to properly resource Fire Services around Australia

When history looks back, we will be remembered for how we responded to this challenge.

They will write about two groups. Those who took action, and those who remained silent.

What legacy will you leave?

What: Beat the Heat - a national day of climate action

When: 11am Sunday 17 November

Where: Russell Square, Parker Street, Northbridge, WA

Wear: Bright heatwave coloured clothing – reds, oranges, yellows

Bring: A hat, water bottle and lots of friends!
