CIRCULAR NO: 33/2018

VALE Retired UFU of WA Life Member Tony Drewett
Notice of his Funeral

Attention All Members:

It is with great sadness that we advise all members of the sudden death of retired Branch Secretary and Life Member Tony Drewett on Monday night.

The Union sends our love, support and condolences to Tony's widow Chris, his children Tara and Trent and his grandchildren, as well as to all of Tony's family, friends and former colleagues.

Tony Drewett joined the Fire Brigade in 1976 and he was in Recruit School 17. He served on C and D Platoons at Perth Fire Station and on D Platoon at Dalglish Fire Station and he was an active Union member for many years. He was a staunch Delegate, Branch Committee member and Union Official. He served terms as both the Union's President (1996 -2001) and Secretary (2001 – 2005). He retired from the Union in 2005.

Tony Drewett's commitment and service for our members and for the community in WA is remembered by all serving and retired members of our Union in WA.

The details for Tony's funeral are set out below:
