Union Election Update

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) has advised the election for positions in the Union will be delayed because of backlog caused by COVID 19.

As a result the timetable for Union's election that was supposed to commence on 15 March will be delayed for around four (4) weeks with the membership roll closing on Wednesday 7 April 2021.

To receive your material & ballot papers for the upcoming election you must provide us with your current postal address.

If you have changed your postal address and you haven't notified the Union, please update it now.
